

we've got you covered!

As leading independent estate agents, we have the area covered – you can have three offices for the price of one!

When it comes to selling your home you want to be sure that you can get the best price, with three local offices we can give you blanket coverage across the area.

Many of our staff have sold property in your village for over 25 years, we know the market. Our knowledge of local property, local prices and the latest marketing techniques means our experience of how to get the most for your home is second to none.

Milton Keynes is now firmly established as a regional commercial centre, thus bringing in buyers from across the globe, our advertising and coverage ensures you have access to these buyers.

Despite the 'Ups and Downs' of the economy over recent decades The Wilkinson Partnership remain here with full time professional staff, committed to selling property, in prominent town centre offices.

Commercially astute, with a proven track record and a whole host of National Awards, don't be tempted to settle for second best. Call us today.

Contact us today for free advice – visit www.qualityhomes.co.uk

